

Mokena Village Board To Take Bids On Well, Water Main Extensions Dec. 15

Work on drilling Mokena's new well should begin the latter part of December or early in January, weather permitting, it was indicated by Village Engineer Ralph Yunker. And with a break by the weatherman it is possible that the task of extending the village water mains also could be started.

Bids on the two projects have been asked by the board and will be opened at its regular meeting Dec. 15.

Bids have not been taken earlier, it was explained, because of complications over land titles. The village board understood that a piece of land off Denny st. had been dedicated to the village when Mokena was laid out originally by Charles Denny. The board decided to make use of this parcel as a location for the new well and thus save buying a site.

When a title search was launched, however, it developed that while the land had been dedicated to the village the developer apparently decided to ignore his action and sold the piece with some other lots.

To acquire the tract, the board decided, would involve the village in some long--and probably expensive--litigation and the members figured it would be cheaper to buy a site and expedite the program.

A piece of ground, approximately 60 by 65 feet, on Bonness st., was purchased from Walter Yunker for $1,400. This will serve as the well site and it will cost about the same to extend a main from there to the storage tank at the village hall on Front st. as it would if the well were located on Denny st., north of the Pioneer cemetery.

The water mains will only have to be four feet below the surface, that depth being the accepted frost level in this area, so if the weather permits that part of the project should not take too long, it was said--two or three weeks.

The standpipe that carries water into the storage tank by the village hall has been sheathed in a new frost casing. The casing came in sections with an aluminum exterior and insulated with foil and fiberglass.

Trustee Marvin Weiten-dorf, chairman of the water committee, explained that the village bought the casing direct from the manufacturer and then had it installed. Following this process the total cost to the village was approximately $1,000, of which some $800 was for the material.

The village board decided to have the work done this way after getting two bids on the job, one for $2,900 and the other for $3,300. The members decided either price was too high and proved it at a net saving of about $1,900.

The village has been chlorinating the water supply for more than a month now. One of the items in the water bond issue approved by the voters last summer was a chlorinator.

Mokena C. of C. To Hold Election Of Officers Dec. 16

The annual meeting of the Mokena Chamber of Commerce is to be held the evening of Dec. 16 in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall on Wolf rd.

Officers will be elected at this meeting. Under the new by-laws of the Chamber, which were adopted at its November meeting, nominating ballots have been forwarded to the members.

Each member is asked to indicate his choice of five persons for the five offices to be filled, president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and director, the by-laws state. Inasmuch as two directors are to be elected this year each member has six choices in making his nominations. Hereafter only one director will be chosen so the number to be voted on will be reduced to five.

When the lists are in the nominating committee will tally the number of votes each member received and name as candidates those receiving the most votes, but first ascertaining if they will accept the nominations.

The purpose of the Chamber is set forth in the by-laws as follows:

"A.--Preserving the free and competitive enterprise system by creating;

1.--A better understanding and appreciation of the business man and his role in community life;

2.--A more intelligent public opinion regarding city, county, state and national legislative and political affairs;

3.--A greater appreciation of the value of more liberal contribution of substance and self for the community's advancement.

B.--Promoting business and community growth by:

1.--Making the community a better place in which to live and transact business.

2.--Inculcating in its membership and the general public, a better understanding of the unlimited advantages of the Mokena region;

3.--Promoting the economic programs and social life of the Mokena region;

4.--Dispensing statistics and information relative to the economic and social advantages of Mokena Chamber's members, the citizens of the area generally, and the world at large."

A joint dinner meeting of the Mokena and Frankfort Chambers was held last night at the American Legion Memorial hall at Frankfort.

Executive Board Of PTG Backs Bond Referendum

Unanimous approval of the proposed Lincoln-Way high school bond referendum has been given by the executive board of the Parent-Teacher Group.

The election is scheduled for Dec. 18, from 12 noon to 7 p.m. and there will be six polling places, Manhattan, New Lenox, Frankfort, Lincoln Estates, Arbury Hills and Mokena.

The board of education is asking approval of $485,000 of bonds for an addition to the present school plant which would provide 12 English and history classrooms, one remedial reading room, one special education classroom for slower learners and expansion of the vocational agriculture and industrial arts department.

Also included in the building program is enlargement of the school's present sewer and water system to meet the requirements of the state's sanitary code.

The bonds would be retired over a 20-year period and according to a board spokesman would result in a five-cent increase in the tax rate, based on the present assessed valuation of $57-and-a-half-million.

Earl Moss president of the PTG and also a member of the high school board, pointed out that 97% of the present school plant is presently being used every period in the daily schedule. Moss also called attention to next year's enrollment showing 102 more students than the present 1,134.

The executive board named Dr. Joseph P. Pet-nuch as chairman for the forthcoming bond referendum. Dr. Petnuch has been active in local, school, religious and civic affairs for several years. In the 1963-64 school years he was head of the PTG. The Petnuchs reside in the Mokena community and Dr. Pet-nuch's dental office is located at Frankfort.

He is providing the leadership for the officers and area representatives of the PTG and organizing the various working committees in the respective communities.

Serving with Dr. Petnuch from the executive committee of the PTG are the following: Earl Moss, Plaza Drive, New Lenox; Earl Montgomery, 402 S. Cedar, New Lenox; Dr. Merle Otto, 20 Pacific st., Frankfort; Mrs. Frank Goetschel, 147 Oakview Drive, New Lenox; James Pickerill, 10909 First st., Mokena; Mrs. John Chestnut, Frankfort twp., Mokena; Mrs. John Hayden, 9436 W. Pine, Mokena; Mrs.

Lewis Ebert, Maple st., Frankfort; Mrs. Ralph Nieland, 240 S. Hickory, Frankfort; Mrs. Steve Kubeck, 80th ave., Frankfort; Mrs. Donald Ball, 79th ave., Frankfort; Mrs. Don Seitzinger, 275 Eastern ave., Manhattan; Mrs. Margie Smith, Lee street, Manhattan; Mrs. June Crabb, Marley dr., Mokena; Mrs. Curtis Buck, Ruth dr., Mokena; Mrs. Ruth Niedringhaus, 116th & Francis, Mokena; Mrs. Durward Fant, 18914 S. 113th st., Mokena; Mrs. Jim Pollack, Thornhouse Crescent, New Lenox; and Mrs. Betty Klasing, 136 Oakview Drive, New Lenox. This over-all committee has appointed community chairmen to coordinate the workers within the six voting precincts along with assisting the board of education. Each local chairman then in turn will secure his workers to assist in the election.

Noel Elliott Selling Out Drug Store

Noel Elliott, owner and operator of the Elliott Rexall drugstore, New Lenox is going out of business.

Lack of space to expand, he declared, is his reason for ceasing operations.

"If there were a modern and larger building available here now," Elliott said, "I would start up business there as soon as I could get moved."

Elliott, who has served as a member of the New Lenox village board and a past president of the Will County Pharmaceutical Association, has been in business at New Lenox since Aug. 16, 1951.

He is selling out all his merchandise.

Delay Milk Price Drop Until Spring

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman took emergency action Nov. 23 to prevent a scheduled Dec. 1 drop of 20 cents per hundredweight in the Class I order prices established by the U. S. Department of Agriculture for dairy farmers supplying milk for Chicago and 11 other midwestern markets.

This was reported by Avery A. Vose who heads Associated Dairymen, Inc., an organization of 36 midwestern and southwestern dairy farmer cooperatives, and is also president of Pure Milk Association, largest supplier of milk for the Chicago market.

Vose said Secretary Freeman has complied with the request of Associated Dairymen that November price levels be maintained to slow down the decline in dairy farmer numbers during the coming winter months when production costs on the dairy farm will be greatest.

The secretary's decision is to hold the Class I price for Chicago market producers at the November level of $4.30 per hundredweight for the months of December, January and February.

For March, April, May and June the Class I order price for Chicago market dairy farmers will be $4.10 per hundredweight under the secretary's decision. On July 1, the pricing provisions of the Chicago Federal milk market order will be activated.

Under this decision, the Class I order prices established for 11 other federally regulated milk markets of the midwest will also remain at their November levels until March and will also be reduced by 20 cents per hundredweight for the period March thru June.

The 11 other markets are Northwestern Indiana, Suburban St. Louis, Rock River Valley, Milwaukee, Madison (Wis.), St. Louis, Quad Cities - Dubuque, Ozarks, Cedar Rapids - Iowa City, North Central Iowa and Des Moines.

Pure Milk Association, on being informed of this decision affecting producers on the 12 markets, promptly requested Secretary Freeman to include the Northeastern Wisconsin milk market. The request was made in a telegram signed by A. L. McWilliams, general manager of Pure Milk Association, which read:

"In order to maintain price alignment with competitive markets we urgently request that a Class I price adjustment comparable to that announced for Chicago Order 30 be established in and for the Northeastern Wisconsin Order 45."

Would Issue Bonds To Buy School Land

Mokena voters will go to the polls Saturday, Dec. 4, to ballot on a proposal to issue $53,525 in bonds to purchase land for future expansion plans.

The board would like to buy the land now, pointing out that it is now available in a location believed to be best suited for the purpose and that the price is lower now than it will be in the near future.

Carpenter Street school will serve as the polling place in Saturday's election. The polls will be open from noon until 7 p.m.

A spokesman for the board sums up its position: "The Mokena board of education is asking you to support their proposal to purchase 21.41 acres of land. The proposed 21.41 acre site would adjoin the present Willowcrest school site to the immediate east and north to 195th Street. The total 31.41 acres is considered adequate for future school expansion.

"The price of $2,500 per acre is reasonable, considering the location of the property (in village, near water, sewer, and fire protection). Two separate appraisals were made by responsible realty firms and both appraisals were reasonably close to the agreed purchase price.

"The total cost will be $53,525. It will be necessary to sell building bonds. The increase in the building tax rate is estimated at less than 2-1/2¢ per $100 of assessed value. Property assessed at 55% fair cash value at $6,000, would increase its tax $1.50 per year. This amounts to less than half a cent per day. It is expected that in a short time, as the total assessed valuation of the school district increases, the small estimated increase will diminish significantly.

"Your board of education is asking you to approve the purchase of the site now to be assured of having the land where it is needed and to avoid future increased land costs. They are asking for additional time to review building and classroom needs. They urge you to support your schools by voting Saturday."

Want Zip Code On Applications

New Lenox residents applying for the 1966 motor vehicle plates are asked by Postmaster L. E. Brown to put their zip code in the space provided for in on the application blank.

Similar requests are made by Postmaster Margaret O'Brien, of Mokena; Postmaster Evelyn Kramer, of Orland Park, and Postmaster Leroy J. Mager of Frankfort.

The zip codes for these areas are: New Lenox, 60451; Mokena, 60448; Orland Park, 60462, and Frankfort, 60423.

Post office officials at Washington have been waging a campaign in an endeavor to popularize the use of zip code.

Derwinski Leaves On African Assignment

Congressman Ed Derwinski, (R-4th) who has spent the period following congressional adjournment in an intensive speaking schedule in this district, has returned to Washington to participate in a special study mission to Africa being conducted by the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Derwinski, together with Congressmen Nix (Pa.), Diggs (Mich.), Rosenthal (N.Y.) - all Democrats and Rep. Adair (R. Ind.), has been given an assignment by Chairman Morgan of the Foreign Affairs Committee to inspect U.S. embassy and consulate facilities and review the foreign aid program in Central Africa. Their itinerary will include inspections and reviews in Ethiopia, Uganda, Congo, Nigeria, Ivory Coast, Liberia, and Senegal.

The Foreign Affairs Committee plans to revamp the entire foreign aid program during the coming session of congress. The assignment the local congressman drew was one of three intense committee trips to review the global administration and controversy of the foreign aid program.

Sports Short Course Planned For Parents

As the indoor winter sports season is fast approaching, the Eagle Booster Club of Sandburg high school has arranged to have John Anderson, coach of the wrestling team, appear at their next meeting, Dec. 8, at 8:00 o'clock to discuss, "Scoring, Holds and Weight Limits."

Each monthly program will include a demonstration of plays and special skills by team members with an explanation of purpose by qualified personnel. Pointers for the spectator will be emphasized so that fans can become more knowledgeable in the sport.

Fred C. Francis, of Wilmington, a native of New Lenox, has been reelected president of Illinois Producers Livestock Association. Also reelected at the IPLA annual meeting held last week in connection with the Illinois Agricultural Association annual meeting are Charles House, Payson, vice-president; and Gilbert Uphoff, Shelbyville, treasurer. Elected secretary is Robert Armstrong, Monmouth, who replaces J. E. Entz, Waterloo, Iowa.

Derwinski reported as soon as this assignment has been completed he will return home to continue his consistently full schedule of appearances before school, church, civic and veteran's groups.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schelkun of Palos Heights are the activity chairmen for the month of December. Refreshments will be served. Future programs will include: Jan. 12, girls athletics; Feb. 9, golf and tennis; March 9, swimming; April 13, track, and May 11, baseball.

Rock Island Going All Out In Piggyback Plans

Rock Island Lines has begun work on a $1.3 million project to build a completely modern piggyback facility in the Chicago downtown area. It was announced by Jervis Langdon, Jr., chairman and president. (Piggyback is the carrying of highway trailers on railroad flat cars.)

The work, slated for completion by June, 1966, represents a major rebuilding and expansion of the line's present piggyback facility at Taylor and Wells streets, immediately southwest of Chicago's loop, and it includes:

- (1) Building 11 tracks to handle 81 piggyback flat cars, holding 162 trailers, at one time.
- (2) Depressing these piggyback tracks, so the floor level of the rail cars will

1966 Seen As Good Savings Loan Year

"The outlook for savings, mortgages and housing in 1966 is optimistic," said Harold P. Halleen, president of Bell Savings, in an address before the National League of Insured Savings Associations convention at Los Angeles. Tempering his optimism with the caution that it might be too early to determine whether the present mortgage rate upturn is temporary or the beginning of a long-term trend, Halleen said he believed that mortgage rates have at least reached a plateau after a decline in the past few years. Halleen spoke on the subject "Savings and Loan Trends in the Chicago Area" before other industry leaders. He reported that the Chicago area like most of the nation is presently experiencing more problems in obtaining savings capital than in procuring mortgage loans. Halleen pointed out, however, that gross savings inflow in savings and loan associations in the Chicago area has continued to maintain a high level. Moreover, there has been no severe money shortage to hamper mortgage lending.

Commenting on savings Halleen said, "Frankly, we have been extremely pleased that the gross savings inflow has maintained its present high level in the Chicago area. I think this is a tribute to the general reputation of our industry."

On the mortgage and housing side Halleen noted that the seasonally adjusted annual rate for single family dwellings in the Chicago area reached an 18 month peak in September and all housing construction reached a 20 month high. This reawakening in housing construction has been accompanied by definite evidence that the mortgage market is strengthening in Chicago. He pointed out that while it is clear that we cannot anticipate a runaway rise in interest rates, there have been slight rate increases over the past six months together with improved credit ratings and larger down payments on the part of today's borrowers.

Halleen drew attention to the fact that interest rates other than on mortgages have been following a normal upward pattern during the present period of prosperity. He attributed the weakness in mortgage rates over the past few years to a sharp drop in housing construction simultaneous with increased competition from commercial banks.

"The current change in mortgage rates could be attributed primarily to commercial banks returning to their historic pattern of pulling funds out of the mortgage market when it is more profitable to make other types of loans."

Hold School Dec. 7 For 4-H Officers

A county-wide training school for all local 4-H club officers will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 7, at Laraway school south of Joliet. The officer's training school will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Local leaders have been contacted to provide the training sessions for the 4-H club officers. Mrs. Earl Keniston, Wilton Center, will conduct the special session for the club presidents and vice-presidents. Mrs. Keniston is vice-president of the Will County Health Improvement Association and has served on other community groups.

Club treasurers will receive their 4-H financial training from William Randles, Yorkville. Mr. Randles is assistant vice-president of the First National Bank of Joliet and head of the farm loan management department.

Miss Agnes Ann Novy, Wilmington, will give the club secretaries their training. Agnes Ann is a former 4-H club member and secretary and is now teaching at Braidwood.

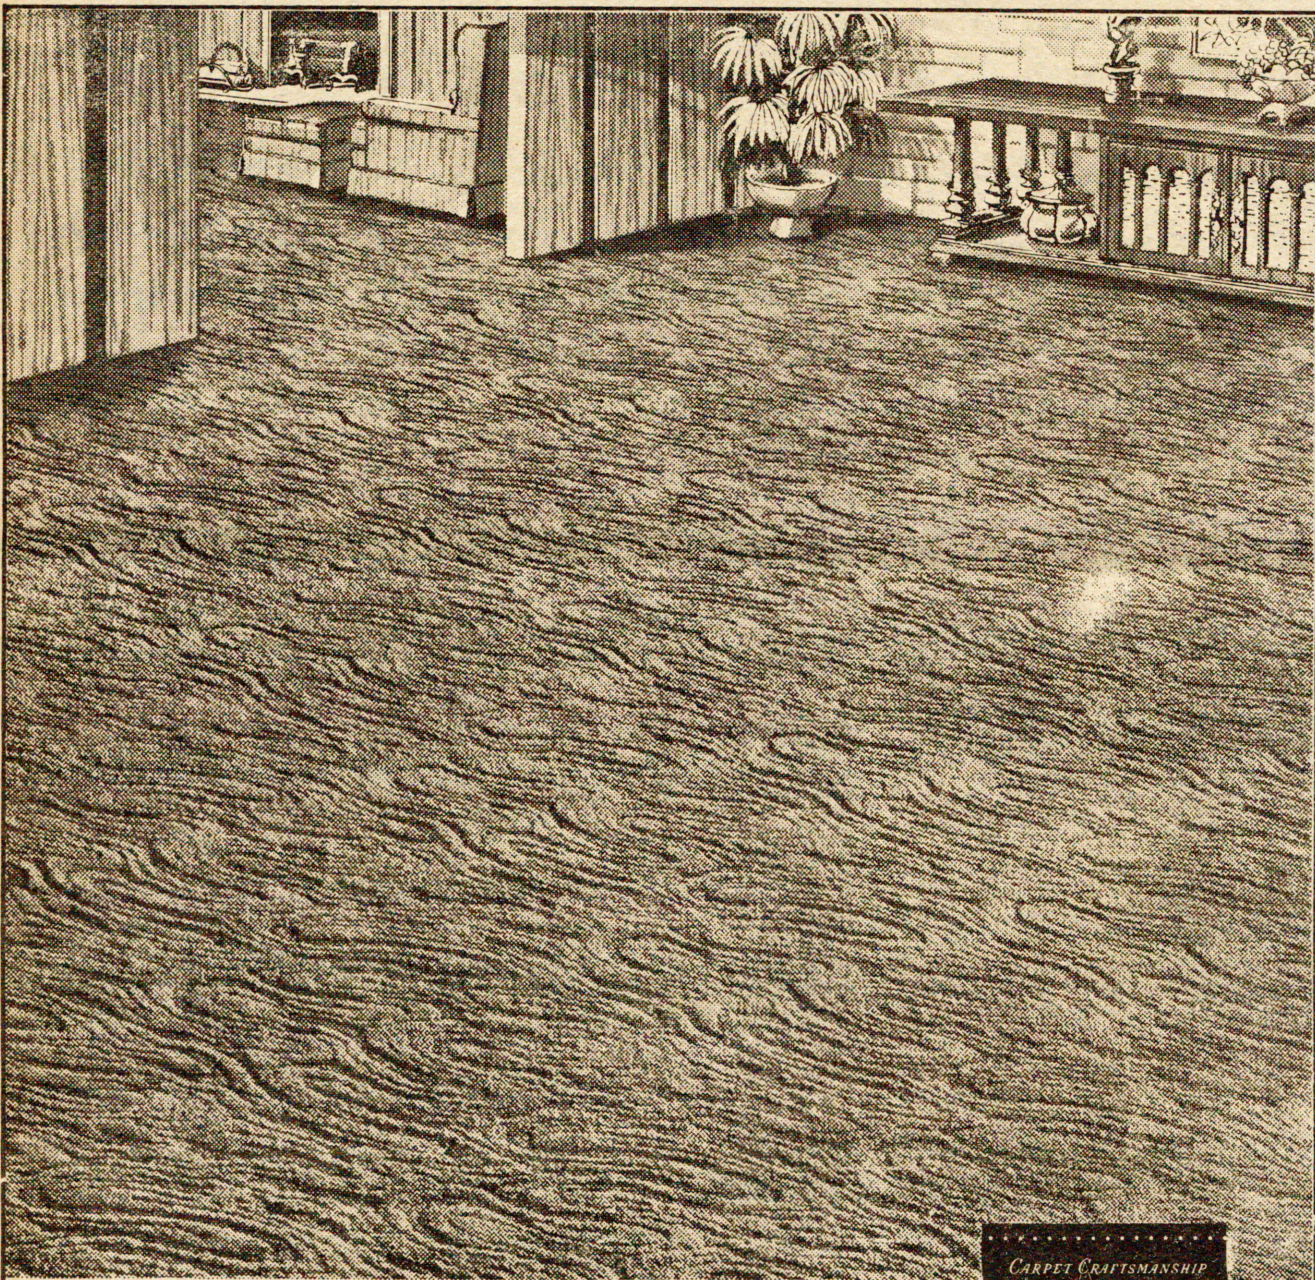

Reporters will be told by Miss Mary Lou Wardley, Joliet, how to do a better job of getting their local club news in the local newspapers. Miss Wardley is associate editor of the Farmers Weekly Review. Robert DeYoung, head of Boys Division, Y.M.C.A., Joliet, will work with the club recreation chairmen in planning their recreation programs.

All leaders and officers of local 4-H clubs are invited to attend. Laraway School is south of Joliet about two miles on Highway 66A and one-half mile west on Laraway road.

Coast Guard Seeks Cadets For Academy

The United States Coast Guard Academy, the only U.S. military academy which appoints its cadets solely on the basis of competitive examination, is seeking applicants for the class convening July 12, 1966.

Deadline for the applications is Dec. 4.

The application deadline coincides with the December college entrance examination board tests which will be the basis for the competition.

There are no congressional appointments or geographical quotas.

Applicants must be unmarried high school seniors or graduates who have reached their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, 1966. They must have earned 15 units by June 30, 1966, including: three in english, two in algebra and one in plane geometry.

They must be in excellent physical condition, between 64 and 78 inches in height with proportionate weight, and must have at least 20/30 vision in each eye, correctible to 20/20.

The four-year course at the Academy leads to a bachelor of science degree and a commission as ensign in the regular Coast Guard.

Additional information and application forms may be obtained from high school guidance counselors or by writing to the Director of Admissions, U. S. Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn., 06230.

First Nighters Meet Tonight

MRS. EDWARD HOVI Telephone: 479-5740
The First Nighters will hold their December meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Maschmeyer of 9527 West Rosewood Lane tonight, Thursday, Dec. 2, at 8 p.m.

Pure Milk Assoc. Elects Officers

Milton Bettenhausen, Rt. 2, Tinley Park was re-elected president of the Tinley Park Local of Pure Milk Association at the Local's annual meeting and dinner in the St. John's United Church, Mokena, Nov. 16.

Other officers for the coming year are Stanley Yunker, Rt. 1, Minooka, vice-president; and Clarence Lauffer, Rt. 2, Tinley Park, secretary-treasurer.

The following delegates were chosen, Herbert Kohl, and Melvin Hoger, both of Matteson.

The Arbury Hills Baby Sitters Cooperative had their secretary's book change hands yesterday from Mrs. Richard Heim, who had been secretary in November to Mrs. Richard Mansell, who will be secretary for the group in December.

Any member who needs a baby sitter should contact Mrs. Mansell at 479-5772 at least twenty-four hours in advance of the date needed.

If there are any other mothers in Arbury Hills who would like to join the group, or would want further information about it, please contact Mrs. Mansell also at the above number.

St. Mary's church in Mokena is having their annual Christmas bazaar tomorrow and Saturday, December 3 and 4. There will be a large selection of Christmas gift items for all age groups both hand made and some store bought'. It will provide a chance for your little ones to have their first look at Santa Claus this year.

The bazaar will be held in St. Mary's gym both on Friday and Saturday. Come early for the best selections.

There will also be a family spaghetti dinner on Saturday evening beginning at 5 p.m. until approximately 9 p.m., or until everyone has been served. There is a moderate charge for the dinner with adults being $1.25, school age youngsters 75¢ and preschool youngsters 35¢.

The ladies are putting in much of their time and kitchen know-how to insure an enjoyable meal for all who attend.

NOTICE - NOTICE

Needy Families To Receive Food Baskets

MRS. DELORES ANDERSON

Telephone: 485-3651

On Dec. 16, 17, and 18, students of the New Lenox schools will bring Christmas gifts to school for the needy families in the community. Containers supplied by the Lions club will be in each school lobby. For a more favorable variety of these food baskets, items have been designated for each grade to bring.

Kindergarten children are asked to bring jello or pudding mix; 1st graders, macaroni, spaghetti or noodles; 2nd graders, canned or dried beans; 3rd graders, raisins, salt, or cocoa; 4th graders, dry (cooking) cereal; 5th graders, canned fruit or vegetables; 6th graders, flour or sugar; 7th graders, rice, toilet soap or detergent; and 8th graders, powdered milk or soup.

The New Lenox Lions Club will supplement this with turkey, potatoes, bread, milk and miscellaneous items. These baskets will be distributed by the Lions Club shortly before Christmas.

Post Office hours at the New Lenox post office will be increased during the month of December to meet anticipated demands of patrons.

In addition to regular window service hours thruout the month of December, the post office will be open on Wednesday afternoons thru Dec. 27, closing at 5:30 p.m.

Saturday hours will be from 8 a.m. thru 5 p.m. on Dec. 11 and 18. In addition, window service will be provided on Sunday, Dec. 19 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Stamps sold, parcels accepted, but no money orders sold on Sunday. There will be no route delivery on Sundays, either rural or city routes. Postmaster Lester Brown suggests mailing early in December and avoid congested lobbies. A.M. mailings will aid in processing your mail to its destination.

HOLIDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Arlan Schram and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hartung and family enjoyed a family Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Schram in Frankfort.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Warning and sons had as their guests for dinner, her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Wischover of Frankfort and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bettenhausen and David of Peotone.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Knowles, Jr. and family had as their guests for a one o'clock dinner, Mr. and Mrs. William Knipple and children of Frankfort, Mr. and Mrs. Weldell Holman and children of Orland Park, Mr. and Mrs. Arlan Schram and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Knowles, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Krohn and children were guests for the day of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Krohn and children.

The New Lenox Ministerial Association will meet Tuesday, Dec. 14, at 10 a.m. in Fellowship hall of the Methodist church, for their second meeting of fellowship. The group will meet once a month as a cooperative unit to help promote progress in the New Lenox area.

The monthly meeting of the executive board of the New Lenox P.T.O. has recently been changed to the first Monday of each month. The December meeting will be held on Dec. 6 at 7:30 p.m. in the Oakview school library.

The December meeting of the P.T.O. of New Lenox schools will be held Tuesday, Dec. 14 at 7:45 p.m. in the Oakview school gym.

The flag will be presented by the Girl Scouts.

A business meeting will be conducted by the president, Mrs. Howard Gow.

The mixed chorus will present a Christmas concert under the direction of Mrs. Doris Adams.

A bakery sale and candy sale will be held in the school lobby. Basketball pins and shakeroos will also be available. The Girl Scouts provide a baby sitter service.

Door prizes will be awarded. October prizes were won by Margaret Thackrey, Jean Johanson, and Bernett Manzi. November prizes were won by Sharon Sly, Pat Bettenhausen and Mrs. E. Armour.

Following the meeting the social hour will be under the direction of the 5th grade room mothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald D. Shreffler, 215 South Cedar road, New Lenox, have returned home from a three week escorted tour to Europe where they visited 10 countries, and enjoyed several side trips.

In London, they enjoyed a full day of sightseeing and visited many places of interest.

They crossed the North Sea to Holland on an overnight steamer, went on a motor-coach trip to the famous Dutch seaside resort of Scheveningen, visited the capital of the Netherlands, The Hague, the famous flower auctions at Aalsmeer, and Amsterdam, the unique city of canals and gabled houses.

In Belgium they visited the capital of Brussels where they say the fabulous Grand Palace with its beautiful Guild Houses. They enjoyed a cruise on the Rhine which to them was very outstanding, with the fall colors on the hills coming down to the river, the castles, and ruins, the hills and vineyards, and the people on excursion boats all singing, and so jovial.

Their seventh day found them in Heidelberg and then on to Basle in Switzerland, and Lucerne, the country's picturebook city.

From Liechtenstein and Innsbruck they drove over the Brenner Pass and thru the Dolomites to Cortina d'Ampezzo, "Queen of the Italian Alps", across the plains to Venice for an evening gondola serenade.

In Florence, the art capital of Italy, they visited the baptistry and the Medici chapel with Michaelangelo's masterpieces.

They motored to the newest section of the autostrada del Sole, open since fall of 1964, to Rome. In Rome they visited many places of interest. While there they enjoyed a visit with the Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Vitello. The Vitellos are missionaries from the Shrefflers church, the Assembly of God. They have been in Rome two years. They entertained the Shrefflers at dinner, and took them calling. They visited the Coliseum at night, which was softly lit, according to Mrs. Shreffler, and one could almost relive the history, and things that happened there.

Leaving Rome, they went to Pisa where they saw the leaning tower, and then motored to Genoa where Columbus was born and San Remo the Italian Song Festival town. They visited Nice in France, and the world famous casino at Monte Carlo. They especially enjoyed an evening tour thru Paris, and a full day of sight-seeing visiting all the important places.

On their 22nd day they left Paris by jet, and after a short stop at New York arrived home the next day.

Board Reports On Sunny Hill San. And Nursing Home

The annual report of Sunny Hill Sanatorium covering the fiscal year of Sept. 30, 1964 through Aug. 31, 1965 has just been released by the Sunny Hill Sanatorium board, Dr. Arthur Fajrmer, Dr. Gayle Hufford and James Hall.

The report shows a total of 92 persons treated during the year in the sanatorium with 70 additional patients under treatment on the outside who received x-rays and medications. There were approximately 5000 patients who made use of the x-ray clinic and had chest films taken during the year.

There were eight deaths in the institution but only one death as a result of tuberculosis. There were two deaths due to cancer, one due to pneumoconiosis and four due to myocarditis.

The report states that the building program carried on for the past six years is now nearing completion with the administration building and nurses quarters being given a complete renovation.

Tribute was paid to many volunteer workers who gave their time and efforts to the welfare of the patients. Andrew Yasko who retired from volunteer service after twenty years was singled out for special tribute. Andy had cared for the chapel on a volunteer basis for all religious denominations. He was instrumental in establishing the chapel for patient use.

Chest surgeons, Dr. Robert Jensik and Dr. Frank Miloy performed 21 segmentectomies and one lobectomy. Dr. Paul Holinger performed three bronchoscopies and one biopsy.

The report also points out the need for more nursing home beds. The Sunny Hill nursing home is running at full capacity with a large waiting list of patients who want to enter.

Manhattan Boy Earns Trip To 4-H Congress

Will County 4-H'er, Dale Cooper of Manhattan, has earned one of the highest 4-H honors offered--a trip to the 44th National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago Nov. 28 - Dec. 2.

Dale was one of 33 Illinois 4-H delegates selected for outstanding achievements from a field of more than 76,000 state 4-H club members. Illinois delegates joined 1,500 other state, regional and national project and activity winners at the five-day meeting. They represent 2,221,000 U. S. 4-H'ers from 96,000 clubs.

Dale, now a freshman in the Joliet junior college, has completed seven years of 4-H club work. His major projects include gardening, beef, forestry, crops, entomology, home grounds improvement and handicraft.

He has shown leadership in 4-H work in many ways. He has served as a junior leader for five years and his activities include citizenship, safety, health, recreation, demonstrations and judging. Dale has received the Key Award. He has attended Junior Leaders' Conference and is a member of the 1966 Continuation Committee.

"Young America and World Affairs" is the theme for the 1965 Club Congress. Speakers from the fields of government, education and mass media aim at increasing 4-H members' awareness of the cultural, economic and political aspects of international affairs.

Entertainment features of club congress included a get-acquainted party; tours of Chicago museums and industries; a "pop" concert; and the International Livestock Exposition at Chicago's Union Stockyards.

More than 55 business firms, foundations, associations and individuals provided funds that make it possible for outstanding 4-H members to attend club congress.

Award Letters, Numerals To Grid Squads At Stagg

Freshmen and Sophomore football squads at Stagg high school have been awarded their monograms and numerals for their performance in the 1965 season. Coach Henry Meier and his assistant, Wayne Chamberlain, awarded 17 monograms to sophomore squad. Recipients are:

Charles Brinkman, Walter Brown, Bob Culloton, Bob Dunham, Dan Gallovitch and Greg Grossman.

Also, Pat Habel, Ed McMahon, Doug Osborne, Mike Raimondi, Jack Ryan and Bill Scholl.

Also, Jim Stacey, Rod Stannis, Bob Thyer, Leonard Windhorst, Mark Zdravetz, Rich Dohner and John Barbush.

Stagg is proud of its Sophomore team which compiled a 4-2-1 record this year. Next year the squad will compete on a varsity level in the Southeast Suburban Conference.

Coach Larry Hedger awarded numerals to the following freshmen football squad members:

Also, Bob Jamrok, Carl Johnson, Rodney Kirk, Dick Krajewski, Ken Krolim, Jerry Kuecher, Tom Lahey, George Mulligan and Don Patterson.

Also, Walt Potacki, Dave Pytko, John Rawot, Al Reinsteine, Mark Spooner, Bob Tate, Fred Wagoner, John Webber and Vince Uzzardo.

The school had praise for its freshman squad which will compete at sophomore level next year.

Following the awards the sophomore and freshmen basketball teams were introduced by Coaches Herb Gerecke and Ken Niebrugge, the latter being the freshman mentor.

Chamberlain, who also is wrestling coach, introduced his mat squad.

School cheer leaders are: Pam Bloom, Carol Lisek, Laurie Nelson, Dawn Makaroff and Linnea Gram.

Sandburg Five Starts Season With Two Wins

Sandburg varsity basketball talent, directed by Coach Bill Adams, appears to be shaping up for another good season.

Sandburg basketball teams are always tough, the records show, and indications are that the 1965-66 version will be up there knocking at the door.

In the three games played last week Sandburg won two and lost one. The Eagles lost Saturday night to Peoria Ridge, 72 to 70, in a game played on the Stagg high school court.

Stagg high is the second high school in District 230 and since the gymnasium there can take care of more spectators than the one at Sandburg, both schools will play their basketball games at Stagg.

The first game of the current season was played Thanksgiving eve against Eisenhower of Blue Island. Sandburg won that one 68 to 66 and last Friday walloped Thornton Fractional North, 61 to 42.

The Eagles begin play in the Southwest Suburban Conference tomorrow night, meeting Rich East at Rich. On Saturday night Sandburg will be host to Hinsdale.

Lincoln-Way Cagers Win 1, Lose 2 Tilts

BY TOM SCARTH

The Knights of Lincoln-Way played three games over the Thanksgiving holiday coming up with only one win.

The Knights romped over the Blue Devils of Peotone 81 to 59 to open their 1965-66 season Wednesday, Nov. 24, in the presence of a big crowd.

Mike Seitzinger earned his sharpshooter medal pacing the Knights with 32 points. Mike shot an incredible 73% from the floor and 80% on free throws.

Last Friday and Saturday the Lincoln-Way squad traveled to Lockport to play in the Porters tournament. The Knights faced a high spirited Joliet Catholic team in their first tournament encounter and lost 58 to 48. Dean Warning was the high point man for the Knights with 12.

It seemed as tho the Knights were never going to get off the ground in the first quarter as the Hilltoppers jumped to an eight point lead before the Knights could score. At the end of the first half the Hillmen were 18 points ahead 33 to 15.

In the second half, the Knights played a much better brand of ball, but they just couldn't stop the Hillmen. The Knights lost by 10 points.

In their second match, the Knights were pitted against conference foe Rich East. The Knights led thruout the entire game until the last heartbreaking minutes. In the last period, the Knights scored only 10 points compared to the Rockets 22 and there went the ball game.

Carl Warning was the big gun for the Knights scoring 15 points, ten of which came in the third period when he connected with five out of six field goals.

I might also point out that the Knights were without the skills of ace guard Bill Stanfill. Bill was injured during a practice session and was unable to play over the weekend.

The Knights travel to Oak Lawn tomorrow night for their first conference game to take on the Spartans. The Frosh-Soph game begins at 6:30 and the varsity at 8 o'clock.

Starting December 1 RATES REDUCED FOR MOST RURAL INDIVIDUAL AND TWO-PARTY TELEPHONE SERVICE

On December 1 mileage charges were eliminated from phone bills for rural individual and two-party telephone service. New, flat rates replaced the previous flat-rate-plus-mileage charges.

For our individual and two-party service customers living some distance from town, the new rates can mean substantial savings. For those living closer, the previous rates-plus-mileage charges may be lower than the new flat rates. In this case, the previous lower rates will continue to apply for that service while the customer remains at that address.

Illinois Bell is speeding work on additional lines in rural areas to make individual and two-party service available to all. During the months ahead we will notify our customers in these areas as soon as this service can be made available to them.

Legion Auxiliary Christmas Dinner At Arch Inn

MRS. KATHARINE HEISNER
Telephone: 469-5187

The American Legion Auxiliary will hold its annual Christmas dinner party on their regular meeting date, Thursday, Dec. 9 at 6:30 p.m. at Arch Inn. The junior auxiliary members will be guests.

Following the dinner a short business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Kenneth Oetter, followed by a gift exchange. The juniors will have a 50¢ gift exchange and the adults $1.00.

Those wishing to attend should phone Mrs. Oetter no later than Dec. 5.

Dr. Irving Rudman flew to Boston, Mass. last Wednesday morning when he attended the 25th reunion of his former high school, the Boston Latin, which is the oldest high school in the country. It was founded in 1634 and for the past 121 years reunions have been held on the 25th and 50th year classes each year.

The Rev. and Mrs. James Parker and daughters spent several days last week with his mother, Mrs. William Parker, and his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Satterlee, at Akron, Ohio.

The annual Christmas luncheon of the WSCS of the Frankfort Methodist church will be held today, Thursday, Dec. 2 at 12:30 p.m. at the church.

Mrs. Wendell Morrison is program chairman. There will be special music by Lincoln-Way high school.

Kitchen hostesses are; Mrs. James Dixon, Mrs. Dan Hecht, Mrs. Amanda Mark and Mrs. Jacob Hostert. Dining room hostesses are Mrs. Rudy Urbano and Mrs. Walter Grotewold.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller entertained at a turkey dinner in their home Sunday in honor of their son-in-law, Roger Corp, who celebrated his birthday. Other guests were Mrs. Roger Corp and Mr. and Mrs. Royal Corp and daughter Connie, all of New Lenox, and Mrs. Katharine Heisner.

The annual Christmas party of the Good Shepherd Ladies Circle will be held at the church on Wednesday, Dec. 8 at 8 p.m. A program will be given by chairman, Mrs. Erwin Baumgartner, Mrs. Jack Ball, Mrs. Leslie Koenig and Mrs. Ernest Mersch.

Instead of exchanging gifts with each other, gifts are to be brought for the Dethesda, home for retarded at Watertown, Wis.

After the evenings entertainment, dessert-coffee will be served by the committee.

The Womens Fellowship of St. Peters church are having their Christmas potluck dinner on Wednesday, Dec. 8 at 12:45 p.m. followed by a program, recreation and gift exchange. All members are invited to attend.

Mrs. Wilbur Hoogstra and Mrs. Louis Stelter are program chairman, with the program to begin at 2 p.m. There will be special Christmas music by the Lincoln-Way high school. A Christmas poem will be read by Mrs. Harlow Jensen.

E.J.&E. Wins Award In Natl. Safety Contest

The Elgin, Joliet and Eastern railway was named a group winner in the National Safety council's 1965 Railroad Employee's National Safety Award competition. It was announced by Robert P. Little, manager of safety for the road.

The awards are given to those Class 1 railroads that have the best employee safety records in the respective groups. Class 1 railroads are those with annual operating revenues of more than $3 million.

The EJE ended 1964 in first place among railroads whose employees worked 5 to 17 million man hours. Its casualty rate was a low 5.60 injuries per million man hours.

Winner in the 40 million or more class was the Union Pacific with a 6.74 rate; in the 17 to 40 million man-hours group the Chicago and North Western took top honors with an 8.82 rating, and the Duluth, Missabe and Iron Range railway led the 2 to 5 million man - hours group with a 4.19 ratio.

Will County Club League Has Golden Anniversary

Over 100 county club women were in attendance at the fall bi-annual of the Will County Club League at the Homer Congregational church.

During the morning session, William H. Jelema, executive director of the Family Service Agency in Joliet, spoke on "Family Service and Its Purpose".

Highlighting the day's festivities was the commemoration of the Golden anniversary of the league. The past 50 years of the league was revealed thru a history presented by Mrs. Loren Sass. On Oct. 8, 1915, a group of 50 women were enrolled as members of the newly-organized Will County Home Improvement club. The following were elected: Mrs. John Frazer, Lockport, president; Mrs. F. C. Grannis, Joliet, vice-president; Mrs. Mark McClure, Manhattan, second vice-president; Mrs. James Owen, Frankfort, secretary. These pioneers sought to promote better programs, better understanding of local and county problems and to make a unity of purpose and action possible that would tend toward the mutual improvement of the homes and communities and would foster culture and cordial relations among county women. The name of the organization was changed to Will County Club League on April 1, 1930.

For many years the league was a federation of 14 clubs. Each club serves for the better life and health in its own area in whatever way needed. All clubs maintain an interest in the newest developments for the good of their communities, such as Red Cross, Heart, Polio and Cancer funds and other worthy causes. Clubs also keep posted and promote interest on state and National legislative affairs.

Past presidents who were present: Mrs. A. J. Alexander, Mrs. Edward Andrew, Mrs. Paul Cozine, Mrs. Floyd McMillen, Mrs. Jack Bockholt, Mrs. William Dudlcek and Mrs. Donald Webster, were honored and presented with corsages by Mrs. John Hashbar, present vice-president of the league.

Mrs. Alfred Emily of New Lenox, led the group in the singing of favorite old club songs. Piano accompaniment was by Mrs. Fred Martin of Elwood.

At noon, luncheon was served by the ladies of the Homer Missionary Society. The tables were attractive with autumn centerpieces. After the luncheon, Miss Verda Jo Sass entertained with vocal solos.

The afternoon program was a good demonstration, "Festive Fare for the Holidays", presented by two homemaking experts from the Northern Illinois Gas Co., Miss Mary Wallace and Miss Naomi Linder. Many traditional as well as new recipe ideas for holiday entertaining were presented by the home economists, along with their Christmas tree and home decorating ideas. All the foods prepared were given away as door prizes. Each guest was given a piece of the anniversary cake, which was a gift from the Marley Women's Club for the occasion.

Add Fringe Benefits For Unusual Gifts

What makes the difference in a gift that's run-of-the-mill and one that's out-of-the-ordinary? It can be the special touch you add to it with decorative cotton trimmings.

Even if you're a novice when it comes to sewing, you'll find it's easy to transform inexpensive, ready-made items into gifts that look as if they came from a high-priced boutique.

Plain cotton sheets and pillowcases, for example, take on a custom-made look with the addition of a cotton braid border in an interesting black and white Greek key design. Look for unusual cotton trimmings wherever drapery fabrics are sold. They come in varying sizes, colors, and patterns—ranging from flat decorative braids to jumbo-size ball fringe.

Give Sheer Enchantment

There's new enchantment in leg fashions for the holiday festivities. Sheer Extravagance, new sheer demi-toe seamless stockings by Hanes, feature Marigold and Arabesque designs in velvety dacron applique on the outer side of each gossamer sheer stocking. The delicate applique, so strategically placed, imparts an extra dimension of enhancement to shapely legs. Black Magic, the most in Sheer Extravagance, has an all-over velvety dacron applique in a floral pattern.

New lacy textures in seamless stockings are a favorite choice for Yule festivities. Shadow, a delicate highly intricate design, achieved by computer, is a new style for after-five occasions. Lace, a delicate sheer textured style, provides highly effective fashion drama as a foil for the classic simplicity of swirling skirt black chiffons with empire waistlines that crowd the discotheque circuit.

Holly Hands?

Rough! That's what hands and skin frequently are, at holiday time, just when a woman wants to look her prettiest.

Such increased activities as cooking, dishwashing and house cleaning are particularly severe on the hands. Another enemy of beautiful skin, the Pacquin people tell us, is indoor heating. It dehydrates, robbing the skin constantly of moisture, just as much as exposure to wind or cold or too much sun in warmer climates.

Since your hands have far less natural oil supply than your face, it is even more important that they be protected indoors as well as outdoors by a good hand cosmetic that will provide them with oil and moisture and guard skin against dryness and aging.

Experts recommend an application of hand cream or lotion in the morning, as part of your daily grooming to protect hands both indoors and out.

Grandparents Treasure Most

Tot's 'Made it Myself' Gift

Gifts from the grandchildren that say, "I made it myself," are the ones that brighten the holiday season most for Grandma and Grandpa.

And the child who learns early that creating his own gifts gives a special meaning to the holiday, has also learned the real spirit of Christmas giving.

Original art work from kindergartners and grade schoolers is always a welcome gift for fond grandparents, and it has the added value of being a project which most children enjoy.

Any youngster old enough to handle a pair of blunt-end scissors and a pencil can create an original collage for Christmas gift-giving. Besides the scissors and pencil, all he'll need is adhesive covering in various colors and patterns, a lightweight piece of cardboard and his imagination.

Mother and youngster together can choose the subject. Does Grandma have a cat? Does Grandpa like boats? Would both like portraits of themselves as seen through the eyes of an eight-year old? Discuss several ideas, covering the interests of both giver and receiver.

Then have the child trace his picture on a piece of paper before deciding on the color combination. A happy pre-holiday excursion will be a trip to the store with mother to pick out the Marvalon adhesive covering colors or patterns that match his artistic efforts.

Each section of the original drawing should be cut out, then traced on the Marvalon backing sheet. Before removing the backing, let him position his picture on cardboard. Section by section, he can then remove the backing and press the adhesive covering in place. The final touch, of course, is adding his signature to the masterpiece.

And a special finishing touch from Mother might be an inexpensive picture frame, perhaps, spray-painted to match the color combination of the small fry art.

Easy-to-use adhesive covering eliminates paste pot smudges on art work, youngster, and furniture, keeping mom's temper at an even keel during the holiday season. And, on Christmas day, the pride of your "did-it-myself" grade schooler will be matched only by that of the delighted recipient.

Tissues Aid Winter Driving

Wintry cold means steamed-up windshields and fogged glasses. Unfortunately, it also means sneezes and sniffles. For a handy answer for all these problems, keep a box of junior-size Kleenex tissues in the car. Hold it on the visor with two large rubber bands, so tissues are easily reached for any situation.

In a Spin for Gift Ideas? Records can Suit any Taste

"Here comes Santa Claus! Here comes Santa Claus!" The sounds of Christmas already are in the air.

The season's excitement soon will fill your home — the flurry of gift wrapping, pleasant scents of baking cookies, of candles and pine boughs, and the welcoming of holiday guests.

Amid the festivity, there's always the problem of an extra surprise gift for the children on Christmas morning, something appropriate for bedridden friends and older people, something to have on hand for last minute gifts or grab bag presents.

Records can solve the problem. Christmas albums such as carols by Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians or "The Story of Christmas" by Tennessee Ernie Ford and the Roger Wagner Chorale are perfect for holiday giving. They also can fill your own home with the sounds of Christmas during holiday parties.

It's easy to find out about these and other favorite albums the next time you're at the supermarket. Just in time for Christmas, you can get one record free with every one you buy. You'll also find the free record albums offer on all Kimberly-Clark household paper products packages.

For year around enjoyment, you'll find a Christmas record gift will provide hours of entertainment to suit any taste.

Gifts to Please Pipe Smokers

If you are giving a gift to a pipe smoker this Christmas, additional pipes and smoking tobacco are always appreciated. Other fine gifts which add greatly to the gentlemen's pipe smoking pleasure are such accessories as humidors, pipe lighters, reamers, pouches, pipe racks, and pipe knives.

This year there is a wider choice in selecting pipes, smoking tobacco and accessories. Two-pipe sets, always a favorite with the pipe smoker, are handsomely packaged for holiday giving. Tobacco is also attractively wrapped in packaging that assures freshness and retention of flavor. A wide assortment of tins, pouches and variety packs are available to choose from.

And there are pipes in all sizes, shapes and colors, to suit every personality.

A recent survey by The Pipe and Tobacco Council indicated that the use of a pipe enhances man's image. Women editors throughout the United States evidently agree with these findings. So, to suit the individuals on your list, the Council suggests you consult your local tobacconist to help you choose the just-right pipes for them.

Gang Enjoys Trimming Tree 'From Scratch'

A tree-trimming party with a new twist — making the trimmings — can earn you the title of favorite Christmas hostess.

It will be one of the easiest parties you've ever given, one you're sure to enjoy as much as your guests.

Send or phone invitations and plan refreshments early, so you can start the intriguing work of collecting the necessary props to make your party a success.

You'll want paste and glue, of course, along with construction paper, cardboard, scraps of felt, sequins, old buttons, and perhaps a few jars of glitter. Search your sewing basket for left-over rickrack, ribbon and bright pieces of cloth. Add to your growing box of ingredients any pretty Christmas cord or scraps of yarn. Include the covers of Christmas magazines, old Christmas cards, and bits of holiday wrapping paper.

Save the center cores from rolls of bathroom tissue and be sure your cupboard includes double layer paper towels in white, pink, yellow and aqua.

Things you'll probably need to buy are pipe cleaners, styrofoam balls about one-inch in diameter, straight pins, poster paint and brushes. At the last minute, get popcorn, string and cranberries to add contrast and color, if you like.

About all that's left to your preparations now is to borrow several pairs of scissors and to find aprons for each of your guests.

The ingredient they bring to the party is their creative talent for devising decorative tree ornaments from the materials you've collected. From a Delsey tissue core can emerge a toy soldier, an angel, a candle or a cannon, with the aid of paint, construction paper and glitter. Or the core can be cut along the spiral lines and pulled out to become a modern, swinging ornament. Or cover the cores with material and trimmings for a cylindrical ornament. Just punch holes in the sides of the tubes and insert cord or yarn for hanging.

Kleenex double layer paper towels become angels, dolls, snowmen or good luck trolls with the help of styrofoam balls and any of the other trimmings. Fold towels to make skirt or trousers shapes, trim with pink scissors and attach to styrofoam ball heads with straight pins.

Afraid you couldn't have a couples' party with tree trimmings? Just try it! Even if the men seem shy at first, the creative challenge will be too much and they'll join the tree-trimmers soon. But don't count on using your guests' ornaments to trim your tree — they'll want to take them home!

Bough-Imprint Tissues Liven Christmas Scene

This year there's something special to add a decorative touch for the holidays. Kleenex Christmas tissues, in a seasonal red, green and gold box, will add sparkle to guest rooms, bedrooms, kitchens and bathrooms.

The tissues themselves can perform all kinds of holiday duties beyond their conventional ones. Printed with a red and green bough design, they're pretty enough to wrap around cups at a holiday egg-nog party. And be sure to keep a box near the mistletoe!

Unique Gift Wraps Add Special Warmth

Here's a new idea when it's time to wrap the presents for display under the tree. Adhesive covering and a pair of scissors are all you need for unique package wrappings.

All you have to do is cut Marvalon adhesive covering to fit the gift box, peel off the backing, and press the covering against the box. If the box has an unusual shape, simply cut a piece of Marvalon to fit each surface. Cover tops and bottoms of boxes separately, and the box itself becomes another gift — a storage place for jewelry, sweaters, gloves, hat or shoes, depending on its size.

Once covered, decorate the package. Use Marvalon strips of a different color to "tie" it. For the holiday look, cut out bells, Santas, wreaths, holly, stars, angels, snowflakes, or other symbols of the season and press them to the gift package.

For personalized presents, cut letters to spell out a name on the box. Wrap packages this way for mailing, and they'll arrive as pretty as when they were shipped, with no bows to crush or paper to wrinkle.

Adhesive covering comes in bright colors and patterns of Christmas reds and greens, winter blues and white, and many other festive hues for holiday gifts.

Stocking Stuffers

If filling the stockings hung by the chimney with care is your happy task, here's a thought for an extra stocking stuffer: Add one or two delicately-colored pastel purse packs of Kleenex tissues to the girls' stockings and give pocket packs to the men in your family.

Smallest Gifts Hardest to Pick

Choosing the "little something" Christmas gift for all those you'd like to remember is sometimes more time-consuming than making major gift purchases.

There's the janitor, the newspaper boy, the librarian, the youngsters' teachers — just to start the list.

Ideally, you want such gifts to have the air of Christmas, to be inexpensive and not too personal. Kleenex tissues meet the need — Christmas tissues, white with bright red and green boughs, for teacher, librarian and the neighbor who gave you a favorite recipe, and man-size tissues for the postman, the newspaper boy and the janitor.

Rose Wreath Decor Adds Holiday Cheer

For a new and easy Christmas decorating touch, try Kimberly Rose wreaths. All it takes is facial tissues, floral wire, a styrofoam circle, and straight pins to make the Christmas wreath of delicate-looking tissue roses. This year you can use white Christmas tissues covered with a design of red and green pine boughs.

Begin each rose with two tissues. Lay them out flat, overlapping about an inch and a half, and fold them in half lengthwise. Fold them lengthwise again, this time only three-quarters of the way across.

Make about five to seven small accordion pleats at one end of the tissue. Next, hold onto the pleats by their open edges. Wind the tissues around the pleats. Last, wrap floral wire around the stem.

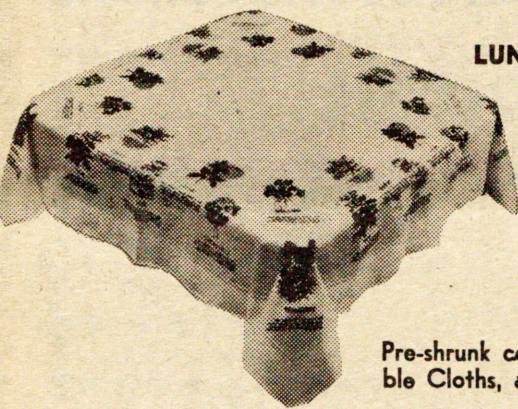

To make a wreath, attach the Kimberly roses to a styrofoam circle with straight pins. The bigger the circle, the bigger the wreath.

The rose wreaths are sturdy enough to use outdoors on porches protected from the weather, and of course, indoors in windows, or on doors and mantel pieces. They are a refreshing burst of color anywhere in the house.

For other easy-to-follow directions for making decorations, centerpieces, bouquets, and party favors from Kleenex products, send 25 cents to Kimberly-Clark Corporation, P.O. Box 551, Neenah, Wisconsin, for "Flowers, Gifts, and Gadgets," a booklet complete with illustrations and patterns.

Good Hostess' Secret Is Early Preparation

Here are some hints to save time and cut work in the busy hours before a holiday party.

Prepare as much of your centerpiece as possible early in the day. Whether you prefer to arrange flowers or fruit, paper towels will come in handy. Wrap dampened towels around cut flowers to keep them fresh in the refrigerator. Shine apples, pears, avocados and oranges with them. And use double-layer Kleenex paper towels when you polish silverware, too.

When preparing food for the party, use throwaway paper towels for wiping spills, cleaning table and counter tops, and draining vegetables and fried foods, as well as for drying hands.

Cushion Cookies for Mailing

Do you plan to send home-made Christmas cookies to special people? To be sure they arrive safe and fresh, place two cookies back to back and wrap in a Kleenex Christmas tissue before packing. Snowy white tissues imprinted with delicate red and green boughs cushion cookies and keep the holiday treats intact for the lucky person who receives them.

Gifts Arrive Intact Only if Well Packed

Getting gifts ready for mailing? Here are some tips for making sure everything arrives intact.

Before wrapping, be sure the gift is well cushioned in the box. If it's small, wrap it in several Kleenex Christmas tissues. Then stuff more tissues in all spaces within the box.

When wrapping gifts for mailing, use a heavy box slightly larger than the gift box. Before sealing the box, insert an extra address label to assure delivery if the outer wrapper is mutilated in shipment.

Seal all edges and tie the box. Put cellophane tape over the address label, so it won't smudge or come loose in damp, wintry weather.

Ladies, Be Sure, Be Subtle . . . When Shopping His Apparel

1. Subtly take inventory, if possible, of the gentleman's wardrobe to see what he needs — items that are missing, others that need replacing or updating, etc.

2. Have a knowledge of the fashion image the man prefers and stay within these limits. Some men like one look to the exclusion of all others while other men like to change their dress by wearing all of today's looks.

3. Choose furnishings — shirts, ties, shoes, etc. — to fit the look the gentleman wears. A natural shoulder man would undoubtedly choose styles altogether different from the advance fashion man.

4. Pick colors favored by the gift-recipient.

5. Be sure of sizes. Make a list of sizes — lots of sizes — such as suit, sport jacket, trousers, etc.

Handsome Gifts — Weather or No

For gifts that are beautiful and useful, see the handsome antiqued ponderosa pine pannelled weather instruments.

These accurate, precision-built instruments are available in either a single model, or a trio panel consisting of barometer, for forecasting weather; hygrometer, for measuring humidity; and thermometer, for measuring temperature. Trio models are mounted on vertical panels or on horizontal panel with decorative golden eagle trim. All by Springfield.

Panels are hand-crafted in early American styling that is a welcome addition to any office or home.

The instruments are housed in dustproof containers that have a heavy metallized finish with the glow of polished brass, guaranteed to retain their high luster permanently.

ser inseam (for slacks), waist, shirt sleeves and collar, hose, shoes, hat, and gloves for examples.

6. Sometimes you can't obtain sizes and still be subtle about it. In this case, select a

A Flashy Gift To Light Up Her Life

Christmas is the time for merriment and gag gifts always bring a good chuckle. When they are also practical, they are twice welcome.

A real flasher for the favorite female in your life is a new "way out" headband for her hair with an honest-to-goodness flashlight attached to it.

She'll go into an "orbit" of delight when she opens this gift. The Starfire "2000" by Puritron also serves a useful purpose, as a unique flashlight that is three units in one.

It is a portable flashlight, two inches in diameter by two inches long, containing the power of flashlights more than five times its size. It is a powerful work light, when put on its special stand, which has a 300° swivel base. And it is a convenient headlight with a headband that leaves both hands free for work or play.

Made of unbreakable plastic, it contains a special zoom switch, which converts it from a spotlight to a miniature floodlight. And best of all it is rechargeable . . . holding its charge for more than year. The flashlight itself is backed by a two-year guarantee.

Starfire is packed in a deluxe jewel-type gift box and costs about ten dollars. It comes complete with charger, swivel base and headband.

gift that isn't sized. For instance: ties, cuff links, silk squares for jacket pockets, etc.

7. Another place to be subtle is in offering sartorial guidance disguised in the form of a gift. Remember, it's not YOUR gift and you won't have to wear it. Pick something he'll like . . . and will wear. You'll do little sartorial uplifting if the gift never gets out of the drawer or closet.

8. Finally, buy early. You'll find a greater selection of sizes, colors and styles available.

These tips from Hart Schaffner & Marx.

Here's Craft For Family Fun

Holiday fun starts with decorating the house. And some of the most attractive decorations can be the least expensive and the most fun to make.

Take "string-maze fantasies," for example. They're light, airy baubles to hang on the tree, suspend from the ceiling, or float from a mobile. And they're made from ordinary cotton string or crochet thread, liquid starch, and balloons.

To make them, pour full-strength starch into a large bowl and immerse string. Wrap starch-soaked string securely around an inflated balloon in criss-cross fashion. Add coatings of starch as you wrap so the string will dry very stiff. When you've achieved an interesting mesh pattern, cut string and hang balloon to dry. When it's dry, prick the balloon and it will pull away from the string leaving a lacy-looking globe. Remove balloon through top and cover opening with holiday trims.

Letters To The Editor

VOTE ON TAX RATE

Dear Sir:

On Dec. 4 voters in School District 118 will be asked to approve an increase of .21 in the Educational Tax Rate. As representative of Palos Educational Association, we deem it essential that this tax rate will be approved. The increase is necessary due to the higher number of personnel, desire to hold competent teachers and also to enable an increase in service members through counselling, speech correction, foreign language, and special reading. The money from this tax rate increase also helps to purchase materials for the class rooms and, in addition, special equipment, for example, the opaque, overhead and film projectors.

What better place could you put your money? In this fast moving world an investment in your child's education is one of the very few you can be sure will pay handsome dividends--in your child's own future income, of course, but more importantly, in helping him find his place and happiness in the world.

We hope to see you at the polls Saturday, December 4.

John A. Mau,
President Palos
Education Association.

Orland Park Cancer Dressing Group Needs Fillers

MRS. SHERMAN KNOX
Telephone: FI 9-0211

The Cancer dressing group will meet in Wesley Hall, Wednesday morning, Dec. 8 at 10 a.m. Those planning to stay for the lunch period are asked to bring a sandwich. Hostesses, Mrs. Harry Pihl and Mrs. Lester Sayers will serve coffee and dessert.

Mrs. Pihl, chairman for this project, states that used bath towels and used bottom blankets as fillers for the pads are needed. Contact Mrs. Pihl if you have any, or better still, take them to the church and join the group.

Orland Park Unit #526, of the American Legion Auxiliary will hold their regular meeting, Tuesday evening, Dec. 7 in the home of the president, Eleta Cocherell, at 8 p.m. A Christmas party will follow the business meeting and members are asked to bring a dollar gift for the gift exchange. Refreshments will be served. Members are urged to attend and enjoy the party.

The Nov. 19 meeting of the Homemakers Extension Unit of Orland Park was held at Tinley Park Farm Bureau Social Center, with 17 members and 3 guests present. The major lesson, "Language and Behavior Patterns That Help Us Understand People" was given by Mrs. Evelyn Bettenhausen, assisted by Mrs. Mary Jane Lohman.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Evelyn Bettenhausen, Mrs. Lois Stedman and Mrs. Mamie Cooper.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Mary Jane McBride, chairman; Mrs. Ruth Uitto, first vice chairman; Mrs. Vicky Tanagerak, second vice chairman and Mrs. Mildred Bormet, secretary and treasurer.

Friday, Dec. 17 the meeting will be held in the Orland Park Methodist church social room. A potluck dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. Guests and husbands are to be invited.

Following dinner, the entertainment will be given by the Evergreen Park kitchen band.

Music Club for piano students of Mrs. Eugene Paschall met Nov. 18 at 4 p.m. at the Thomas Woodstrup home, 8421 - 133rd st., Palos Park. Solos were played by the following - Allen Yang, Mary Hansen, Keri Van DuClos, Donald Smith, Mark Woodstrup, Peggy Daniel, Karen Doubek, and Peter Gremier. Appropriate to the season, Kim Klatt played "The Hymn of Thanksgiving."

Retiring president, Karin Polson presided as the following new officers were elected! Peter Gremier, president; Peggy Daniel, vice president; Karen Doubek, games chairman.

Peggy Daniel was the winner in a game in which song titles were used to fill in blanks in a story. Guests were - Mrs. King DuClos and Mrs. Robert Klatt of Palos Heights, Mrs. Richard Yang and Mrs. L. H. Daniel of Orland Park; Mrs. Louise Dexheimer of Granite City, Ill., Mrs. Donald Smith and Jeffrey, Mrs. James Hansen and Claudia, Mrs. Robert Polson, Mrs. James Gremier, Mrs. Emil Doubek, John, Wendy and Matthew Woodstrup of Palos Park. Cookies, coffee and punch were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Yunker attended the public installation of Richard Cole Lodge #697, A.F. & A.M., 11039 So. Michigan Ave., Saturday, Nov. 20. Their son-in-law, Arthur Oaks of Chicago was installed as Worshipful Master. Mr. and Mrs. James Gray, daughter of the Yunkers also attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Yunker of Orland Park; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Oaks and Children of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Yunker of Mokena were Thanksgiving dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Yunker of Mokena.

The Ladies Aid of Christ Lutheran church will meet in the church school building for their Christmas birthday party, Thursday, Dec. 9 at 7:30 p.m. There will be a dollar gift exchange and each member is to bring a 25 cent gift to be used for the games.

BOARD PRESIDENT ANSWERS

Dear Sir:

As President of the Mokena board of education, I feel it my duty to answer the letter that was published in your newspaper last week.

We do not put land ahead of teachers. The Mokena board of education, your duly elected school representatives, have always placed the educational needs of each child in the district as their most important responsibility.

The board has always attempted to hire top qualified teachers, and plan to continue in the future. We are proud of our teaching staff, and will compare them with any in the state. The average teacher salary in our district is $5791. In elementary districts across the state, including Cook County suburban schools, having 1000 students or less, the average salary is $5332, so we are making a sincere effort to hire qualified teachers and to pay them well. We must compare ourselves with districts our size, however.

We admit that it is becoming increasingly difficult to pay teachers properly with an 86¢ maximum educational tax rate. On Saturday, September 25, we asked for an increase in the rate. The election was defeated. We know that an increase in revenue is necessary for educational purposes. We levy but once a year (the fourth Tuesday of each September), this year on Tuesday, Sept. 28. We have ample time to evaluate the results of the lost election, and yet if necessary, still ask again for the taxpayers to approve an increase in the educational rate before the next levy deadline, September, 1966.

In addition to hiring teachers, it is our duty to provide safe, comfortable classrooms for the students and teachers. We are taking steps to provide classrooms as needed. One basic need for now and in the future is land. A good site is now available and for sale. We feel that this is the first step that should be taken.

We would like to expand our educational program to include art, more band, and music but at present we have no building space or funds.

The Mokena board of education is proud of the good basic education they are providing for the children of the district. The Board is faced with a problem, a problem that needs the attention of every citizen in the school district. Due to rapid increase in enrollment, more

Marines Seek Aid For Civilians

The Marine Corps Reserve and the citizens of the Chicago area have been offered "a piece of the action" in Vietnam, Lt. Col. John J. O'Donnell, USMCR, commanding officer of 5th Communication Squadron, Marine Air Reserve Training Command, has announced.

This can be accomplished, he said, thru individual contribution to CARE in the name of the newly established "Marine Corps Reserve Civic Action Fund for Vietnam."

"We of 5th Communication Squadron are initiating an all-out drive to obtain donations to aid the Civic Action programs of our regular Marine Forces in Vietnam," Lt. Col. O'Donnell stated. "Any citizen or group in the Chicago area desiring to make donations in support of the program may obtain special envelopes for this purpose by calling DRexel 3-2070 or visiting the Training Center located at 500 W. 36th St., Chicago.

"Money is not being collected by the Marines", Lt. Col. O'Donnell emphasized. All donations are tax exempt, it was said and are on a voluntary and individual basis to CARE. This government-approved agency is already operating in Vietnam and is capable of efficiently handling donations, making purchases and providing transportation to Vietnam where the needed supplies will be turned over to the III Marine Amphibious Force for use in support of their civic action programs.

land is needed to build classrooms on, and more money is needed to pay teachers, to hire new teachers, and to provide basic educational essentials. We feel that the land must be purchased now. The purchase of land has nothing to do with hiring and paying qualified teachers as land must be paid for out of one fund (building or bond and interest) and instructional expenses must come out of the educational fund.

President
Mokena Board of Education

December 8, 1903—Professor Langley, secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, failed in a second attempt to fly an airplane constructed according to his own plans. (Eleven years later the Langley machine was re-tested and successfully flown.)

December 20, 1880—The first part of New York's Broadway to go up in electric lights was the section between 14th and 26th Streets.

December 23, 1938—Jazz history was made in New York's Carnegie Hall when two pianists, Meade Lewis and Albert Ammons, introduced the new form of popular music which they called "boogie-woogie."

December 24, 1912—This Christmas Eve in San Francisco was highlighted by the dramatic appearance of the Italian coloratura soprano, Luisa Tetrazzini, who appalled opera lovers by stating that she would rather sing on a curbstone in San Francisco than in the finest opera house anywhere in the world. Good as her word, the opera star, at midnight, began an impromptu open air concert at the city's famous Market Street.

December 5, 1818—The popular Christmas carol "Silent Night, Holy Night," composed the day before by Franz Gruber, was sung for the first time at Oberndorf, Germany.

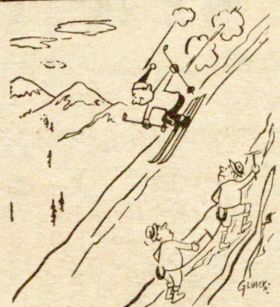

WORTH TALKING ABOUT

"At the beginning of this year, we estimated that GNP (Gross National Product) for 1965 would show an increase of $33 to $43 billion, with $38 billion as the midpoint in our forecast range. Today it seems likely that the annual advance will be above the midpoint—it should go a bit above $40 billion, bring the GNP to a level of about $670 billion. A repeat performance of the $40 billion increase would be most welcome in 1966. I am not prepared to bet that we will experience such an encore, but nothing in the present outlook clearly points either to a slowdown or to an unsustainable spurt that would rule out such a happy outcome."

Gardner Ackley
Chairman, Council of Economic Advisers

"Now change, itself, is inevitable, but the course and direction of change are not preordained nor predestined. Just as all the changes have been brought about by actions and attitudes of men, so it lies within the power of men to shape the future course of change to meet their collective will."

Roger M. Blough, Chairman,

A Useful Tree -- The Osage Orange

COOK COUNTY FOREST PRESERVE NATURE BULLETIN

Ever since primitive man decided that it was easier to raise his own meat than to go out and hunt wild game, there have been herdsman and farmers who have had to build fences. Fencebuilding and fence repairing, whether they be stone walls, living thorn hedges, rail fences, barbed wire or electric fences, are never - ending jobs for farmers.

About the time young Abraham Lincoln was splitting oak and walnut logs into rails for "worm" fences, middle western farmers began to hear of a small thorny tree, native to the Arkansas River region, which could be grown in dense hedges to inclose horses, cattle, sheep and hogs. Because the Osage (Wazhazhe or "war people")

Extend CROP Campaign To December 15

The 1965 Christian Rural Overseas Program for Will County was extended to Dec. 15 announced William Z. Polley, Plainfield. Many of the volunteer helpers aren't finished harvesting as yet. They met with Mr. Polley and the County CROP Executive Committee at Manhattan on Monday, Nov. 22.

CROP helps other countries with food, health and education. The Church World Service distributes the donations to the needy countries. CROP has been in operation for 17 years.

The county volunteer helpers, as announced by County CROP Director Polley, are:

James B. Patterson of Plainfield; Donald Baltz, Edwin Meyer and Edwin Dempsey, Joliet; John Lubke, South Wilmington; Alex Brown, Wilmington; Eugene Gaskin, Lockport; Charles Deutschman and Harlow Nicholson, Elwood; the Rev. Ian Brown, Marley; Roy Smith and Eugene Arnstrom, Manhattan; Jim Tilsy, Mokena; Milford Bunte, Beecher; Siegfried Beckman and Harold Bartels, Monee; Verlin Thiesfeld, Peotone; and the Rev. Dick Kennedy, Homer Congregational church.

Indians inhabited that region, it was called the Osage Orange.

It is a medium - sized tree occasionally reaching 50 feet in height and two feet in diameter, with glossy simple leaves about twice as long as broad. The twigs are orange - brown in color and armed with many straight stout sharp thorns about three-quarters of an inch long. The large wrinkled orange-like green fruit, four or five inches in diameter, as well as the leaves and twigs, contain a milky juice which is quite bitter. These fruits, heavy and hard, are commonly known as "hedge apples" and used by boys as missiles for mimic warfare and other purposes. They are not edible. It is the only tree of its kind in the world, although related distantly to the mulberries and figs. Silk worms feed on its leaves as readily as on those of the mulberry. Some of these trees have yellowish male flowers bearing pollen which is carried by bees to other trees with greenish female flower-heads that produce the "oranges".

Osage orange grows well on many kinds of soil thru-out most of the United States. Sprouts from roots, or shoots grown from seed or cuttings in nurseries, are planted in one or two rows several inches apart where a hedge fence is wanted. These are trimmed once or twice a year to form a dense hedge about 4 feet high and 2 feet wide. Sometimes the "whips" or sprouts are planted on an angle to create an inter-woven lattice-like living fence.

If farmers neglect the trimming, the hedges grow rapidly to become havens for birds and other wildlife. However, the trees so produced are valuable as posts for wire fences because osage orange is more durable in the soil than any other wood and many such fences have lasted more than 50 years without a single rotten post. Since they occupy and shade too much valuable cropland, most such overgrown hedges have been removed in recent years.

The wood, exceedingly heavy, hard and strong, shrinks but little as it dries and was formerly used to make the felloes and hubs of wagon wheels. A yellow dye can be extracted from the bright orange wood and roots for tanning and coloring leather. The Osage Indians used the wood to make war clubs and bows, and the tree was called bois d'arc (wood of the bow) by the early French explorers. Without doubt, it is the finest wood for bows in all the world. Archery fans scour the country for osage orange trees large enough and straight enough for bows. Perhaps one in a hundred, or a thousand is suitable. It is carefully sawed into staves which are varnished and seasoned for several years before the wood is ready to be fashioned into a bow. In 1800 or thereabouts, historians mention that the Osage Indians valued such a bow equal to a horse and a blanket. Today, 150 years later, it is worth the same.

Awards Night At Cub Scout Pack 237

MRS. EMIL WILLE
Telephone: 464-5277
Cub Scout Pack #237 held its meeting Friday, Nov. 19 at the Ann Rutledge school. Den #4 had the flag presentation.

Awards were presented to the following; Edward Hafel, James Blevins and Richard Wilson, bobcat; Timothy Kruse, one gold badge; one gold arrow and three silver arrows; Thomas Albrecht, one gold and one silver arrow in the wolf rank; Gary Coburn, one gold and two silver arrows in the wolf rank; Robert Cummings, bear badge and one gold arrow; Kenneth Bidne, bear badge.

Also, Ralph Sluiter, one gold arrow and his one year service star; Shane Gericke, one silver arrow in the bear rank; John and James Ly-one, lion badge; Robert Les-niewicz, lion badge, one gold and one silver arrow.

Thanks to Mrs. Beverly Kovar for her service and help to Pack #237 as a den mother. Mrs. Kovar is no longer with the den.

Thank you service awards were presented to Charles Scheeler and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kovar. Mrs. Lester Albrecht is the new den mother for #4.

Howard Bluth has joined the committee of Pack #237 and has taken the job of treasurer.

Games were led by den #5; a skit was presented by den #1.

On Saturday, Pack #237 hiked to the Richard Smith home where they enjoyed a wienie roast. They were accompanied by Ralph Bidne, Howard Bluth, Lee Ger-ricke, Ed Nicholson and Bob White.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Schuel-ke of DeKalb are the parents of a baby girl, Susan Rose-mary. Mrs. Schuelke is the former Judy Wheeler.

The seventh and eighth grade pupils of the Ann Rut-ledge school held a dance in the school basement Sa-turday evening. Music was by the Devils Angels of Hazel Crest, a 3-piece combo.
